PART A — PROGRAMME & ADMISSION INFORMATION

1. ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Chanakya National Law University (CNLU), Patna was established by the Chanakya National Law University Act, 2006 (Act No. 24 of 2006) and has UGC's approval under section 2(f) and section 12(B) of the UGC Act, 1956. The University is headed by its Chancellor, the Chief Justice of the Patna High Court Hon'ble Justice Sangam Kumar Sahoo, and the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Faizan Mustafa.

The primary objective of the University is to offer multidisciplinary, research based comprehensive legal education to young legal minds and simultaneously instilling in them respect for the rule of law and values enshrined in the Indian Constitution. The University has also been statutorily mandated to contribute to nation building through legal awareness, dissemination of legal knowledge and conducting researches on the legal issues of contemporary relevance and other subjects of public concern.

CNLU maintains a deep and organic connection with the judiciary, which is reflected not only in its leadership structure but also in its academic and institutional ecosystem. The University has developed sustained engagement with members of the bench and bar, with several eminent judges contributing as adjunct faculty and mentors. Members of its teaching faculty also include individuals with prior experience in Criminal Justice system, Judiciary and litigation, ensuring that classroom teaching is enriched with practical, courtroom-oriented insights.

The University has been associated with several distinguished jurists of national and international repute. These include Hon'ble Mr. Justice Zak Yacoob, former Judge of the Constitutional Court of South Africa; Hon'ble Mr. Justice Madan B. Lokur, former Judge of the Supreme Court of India and presently a Judge of the Supreme Court of Fiji; Hon'ble Mr. Justice Markandey Katju, former Judge of the Supreme Court of India; Hon'ble Mr. Justice Arijit Pasayat, former Judge of the Supreme Court of India; and Hon'ble Mr. Justice Raghvendra Singh Chauhan, former Chief Justice of the Uttarakhand High Court.

The governance structure of CNLU further reinforces this judicial connect. The General Council comprises eminent members of the judiciary and legal fraternity, including Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ahsanuddin Amanullah, Judge of the Supreme Court of India; Shri R. Venkataramani, Attorney General for India; Hon'ble Mr. Sangam Kumar Sahoo, the Chief Justice of the Patna High Court and Chancellor of CNLU; Hon'ble Mr. Justice Nani Tagia, Judge of the Patna High Court; and Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajesh Kumar Verma, Judge of the Patna High Court; Shri Manan Kumar Mishra, Chairman of the Bar Council of India; and Shri Ramakant Sharma, Chairman of the Bihar State Bar Council.

The Executive Council includes Shri P.K. Shahi, Learned Advocate General of Bihar, further strengthening the institution's linkages with the State's legal and constitutional framework.

CNLU's alumni have consistently demonstrated exceptional performance in judicial service examinations across multiple states, earning the University a strong reputation for producing members of the judiciary. This sustained success has led to the University being recognised for its strong contribution to judicial services.

Beyond formal education, the University plays an active role in capacity building and institutional training. It regularly conducts training programmes for judges, public officials, and administrative officers. Notably, CNLU has collaborated with UNICEF to conduct specialised training programmes for Sub-Divisional Police Officers (SDPOs) and Deputy Superintendents of Police (DSPs) in Bihar.

Through these initiatives, CNLU has emerged not only as a centre for legal education but also as a key institutional partner in strengthening judicial, administrative, and law enforcement capacities in India.

The University has a lush green campus in the heart of the historical city of Patna, the capital of the state of Bihar which was the first capital of India during the Mauryan empire. Ashoka the Great was the King of Patliputra. It is located within an educational hub along with other great educational institutions leading to creation of an ambiance of intellectual exchanges and mutual learning among students of different disciplines. Located within an easy distance from the Airport and Railway Station, the campus boasts of an impressive array of facilities and amenities such as well-equipped academic and administrative blocks with newly renovated smart classrooms, a rich library with huge collection of e-resources, state-of-the-art accessibility lab, language lab, café, basketball court, football ground, boys' and girls' hostels and well equipped gymnasium for both male and female students. The University also provides comfortable accommodation for teaching and non-teaching staff.

The University offers five year integrated undergraduate B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) & B.B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) degree programs, three year LL.B. program and one year Master of Laws (LL.M) program. The University also offers research programs such as Ph.D., D. Phil. and LL.D. The courses seek to enable students to meet requirements of the Corporate Law Firms, Judiciary and Legal Profession including Alternative Dispute Redressal. CNLU aims to produce not a moral technicians but extremely competent and socially sensitive professionals who would meaningfully contribute to the building of Vikshit Bharat by 2047. Presently, University is undergoing a quite revolution to drastically improve its academic programmes with several bold and innovative changes having been introduced from 2023-24.

EQUALITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION:

CNLU is a perfect example of a social justice institution. We firmly believe that law is a potent instrument for driving social transformation. Accordingly, we nurture our students to acquire not just legal proficiency but also ethical values and compassionate and caring leadership dedicated to fostering a fairer and more just and equitable society. Our alumni as soldiers of justice exemplify these values. They are widely appreciated for their integrity, professionalism, and unwavering commitment to advancing social justice.

Our accomplished alumni have secured prestigious scholarships at leading universities of the world. These include renowned institutions such as School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London, University of Cambridge, University of California, Berkeley, and Leiden University in Netherlands, University of Southern California, Stanford University and Northwestern Pritzker School of Law.

Our university campus features a comprehensive range of facilities meticulously designed to meet the needs of our diverse student body. We are deeply committed to advancing gender equality and ensuring equitable opportunities, with a particular focus on embracing gender diversity. Our dedication also encompasses championing disability and transgender inclusion, as it is integral to our strategy of promoting equity and accessibility for individuals with disabilities. We prioritize mental health and well-being of our students, actively promoting an inclusive approach to not only teaching and learning but also assessment.

The institution's Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) was established in strict compliance with the University Grants Commission (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of Women Employees and Students in Higher Educational Institutions) Regulations, 2015. This committee plays a vital role in proactively addressing and preventing instances of sexual harassment within the workplace, ensuring a supportive and respectful environment for all.

FACULTY:

Our faculty comprises a diverse and gifted groups of passionate teachers and scholars who are devoted to learn from students as their co-learners. They consider them as facilitators. They remain ardently engaged in teaching, research, and guiding students. The university has instituted a mentor-mentee policy to assist mentees in honing their professional skills and knowledge, guiding them in setting and accomplishing career aspirations, and steering them towards success. The faculty's profound expertise and unwavering pursuit of excellence play a crucial role in ensuring that CNLU graduates are equipped with all the necessary skills.

2. ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

The M.Sc. in Cyber Security & Digital Forensics (M.Sc. CSDF) is a multidisciplinary, practice-oriented and legally grounded postgraduate programme offered by CNLU, Patna. It addresses India's emerging cyber challenges by integrating advanced cybersecurity technologies, cyber crime investigation methodologies, and digital forensic sciences with strong emphasis on Indian legal frameworks, judicial requirements, and law enforcement procedures.

The programme prepares graduates for more than 21 career roles across four distinct career tracks: Industry, Judiciary, Law Enforcement, and Policy & Governance Institutions. CNLU's law school foundation uniquely qualifies M.Sc. CSDF graduates for judiciary, law enforcement, and policy roles that pure technology graduates cannot fill. Candidates from all disciplines are welcome to apply.

- Remedial classes shall be held in the second half and shall be engaged by the respective faculty.

15. PROMOTION SCHEME

No candidate shall be promoted to the next higher class unless he/she has completed all the courses in a given year. However, a candidate who has failed in not more than two courses in a year may be promoted to the next higher class. Under such circumstances, the candidate has to re-register for the courses failed separately. A sum of Rs. 1,000/- will be collected as the Re-registration Fee. The following detailed rules shall be followed by the Examination Committee:

1. A student, who has failed in more than two courses of odd Semester, i.e. 1st, 3rd Semester even after the Repeat End Semester Examination for the concerned odd Semester, will in no case be promoted to the next higher classes.
2. A student, who has failed in more than two courses in a given year, shall be promoted to the next higher Semester in anticipation of his/her clearing the said courses in the Repeat End Semester Examination for the even Semester of the given year. The total courses he/she has failed should remain two or less than two after the Repeat End Semester Examination.
3. He/She will be promoted to the next higher class, subject to the condition that he/she clears the requisite number of Courses, failing which, he/she shall be detained in the said class, viz. the class in which he/she failed.
4. Till the aforesaid Repeat End Semester Examination is conducted, he/she will be conditionally promoted to the next higher level. His/her admission will be entirely conditional.
5. In no case a student will be promoted to the Second Year without passing all the courses of the First Year.
6. A Student who is detained in a given year will have to re-register for the Courses failed separately and appear for the Surprise Test, Mid Semester, End Semester, and Project works afresh. However, marks for the attendance will be carried forward. The student has to apply for a fresh Project, and the concerned Faculty will allocate a new project topic.
7. Those promoted students who fail to clear any subject of the M.Sc. CSDF programme of the previous Semester, even after appearing in the Repeat End Semester Examination of their respective even/odd Semester, shall have to appear in the Surprise Test, Mid and End Semester Examinations of that particular Backlog Course in the subsequent even/odd Semester as the case may be. They shall also submit a fresh Project on a new topic assigned by the respective Faculty. However, the attendance marks of his/her regular Semester in that particular Course shall be retained for the purpose of preparing his/her result.

8. Those students who have failed in not more than two courses in a given year will be promoted to the next higher class. Under such circumstances, the candidates have to re-register for the Courses failed separately, for which they will have to pay a sum of Rs. 1,000/- per Course.
9. A student admitted to the M.Sc. CSDF programme shall have to pass all the prescribed and optional courses totalling 80 credits within the maximum period of Five Years from and including the year of admission in order to be eligible for the award of the Degree.
10. A candidate who has secured less than 50% marks in the Project may, however, rewrite the Project and submit the same for evaluation during the Repeat End Semester Examination of the concerned even/odd Semester. The student will have to pay a sum of Rs. 500/- per Project as a re-submission fee.
11. Those who fail to submit the Project on time shall have to submit the Project after depositing the re-submission fee of Rs. 500/- during the Repeat End Semester Examination of the concerned even/odd Semester.

16. REPEAT END SEMESTER EXAMINATION

Repeat End Semester Examination will be held for each Semester as per the Rules. The student shall appear in the Repeat Examination on payment of Rs. 500/- per paper as the Examination fee. The Repeat End Semester Examination will be held immediately after the commencement of the next Semester. The Repeat End Semester Examination shall be conducted only once (excluding the main examination), and the grade secured at the End Semester Repeat Examination shall carry the letter ® at the top.

17. AWARD OF DEGREE

A student will be eligible for the award of M.Sc. CSDF Degree and Diploma in CSDF only when he/she has successfully completed all the requisite credits for the course and obtained a CGPA of 5.5 out of 10.00.

Percentage of Refund of Fees	Point of time when the notice of withdrawal of admission is received by CNLU, Patna
100%	15 days or more before the formally notified last date of admission
90%	Less than 15 days before the formally notified last date of admission
80%	15 days or less after the formally notified last date of admission
50%	More than 15 days but 30 days or less after formally notified last date of admission
00%	More than 30 days after the last date of admission

Note: Refundable deposits shall be refunded in full.

21. ANTI-RAGGING POLICY & CODE OF CONDUCT

Ragging and sexual harassment in any form is banned and is a punishable offence and will entail immediate expulsion from the University. Use of any uncivilized or abusive or filthy language against a fellow student, teachers, non-teaching staff, outsourced personnel etc. and causing nuisance (including playing loud music, bursting fire crackers) will invite strict disciplinary action. The University has already constituted an Anti-ragging Squad and Anti-ragging Committee. The faculty would be doing their best to mould the career of every student in a manner that the University can justifiably be proud of. In this effort, constant and continuing support of the parents is also solicited. Parents should accompany their wards at the time of joining of the University, so as to interact with the Vice-Chancellor, Registrar and Faculty.

Anti-Ragging Affidavits

All admitted candidates shall be required to submit the following Anti-Ragging Affidavits, which are mandatory as per UGC Regulations:

- (a) Affidavit by the Candidate regarding Anti-Ragging – through online affidavit available at https://www.antiragging.in/affidavit\_university\_form.php or a notarized affidavit on a Rs. 100/- (One Hundred) Non-Judicial Stamp Paper.
- (b) Affidavit by the Parents regarding Anti-Ragging – through online affidavit available at https://www.antiragging.in/affidavit\_university\_form.php or a notarized affidavit on a Rs. 100/- (One Hundred) Non-Judicial Stamp Paper.

Prohibition of Intoxicants

The University is a non-smoking zone and consumption and possession of intoxicating liquors and psychotropic substances is punishable offence and is strictly prohibited (Reference: The Bihar Prohibition and Excise Act, 2016). Violation of any of these rules would be viewed as an act of indiscipline and may entail severe action which may lead to expulsion from the University.

General Discipline

The University upholds integrity, character, discipline and academic excellence to which every student must contribute. Students shall observe and adhere to the rules and regulations of the University. Your joining of the University shall be deemed as voluntary consent to all the above conditions and other rules and regulations that the University may make from time to time.

22. GENERAL CAMPUS GUIDELINES

(a) Medical Facility: The medical facility on the campus is limited for minor ailments only. If a student is suffering from any ailment/disease which warrants medical consultation on a regular/frequent basis, the student and their parents need to make their own arrangements.

(b) Vehicle Policy: No vehicle is allowed inside Gate No. 2 of the University campus. Students are discouraged to have four wheelers. Students shall park their two wheelers (outside Gate No. 2) in the parking area of the University at their own risk. Failure to observe these rules entails heavy penalty.

(c) Hostel: Hostel accommodation will not be provided to the students.

(d) Provisional admission will be granted after thorough verification of the documents of the candidates. However, if any document is found not to be as per minimum educational eligibility criteria as mentioned in the Admission Notification or/and if any document is found to be forged/tampered/fake etc. at any point of time, the admission shall stand cancelled automatically.
